3. Please Read This: Privacy Notice, Use of Data and Data Protection...

The Club is registered in accordance with the Data Protection Act 1998. Club Rule, Section 30, Data Protection: The Club may use information collected on membership forms and other approved documents for the purposes of running the Club, and may transfer such data outside of the boundaries of the European Union. All such purposes to be at the discretion of the Executive Committee. The Club collects only data relevant to necessary administrative and managerial functions of the Club and for the purposes of fulfilling the objects of the Club as in Rule Section 2. Your date of birth is included as essential information, as it, combined with your membership number, gives us the sufficiently rigorous verification data that you need when accessing your records or if required when we need to identify you over the telephone. These details also enable us to map the Club membership age demographic and plan accordingly for the future. The Club is the founder and major shareholder of The VOC Spares Company Limited; we share only sufficient information to enable them to verify you are a current Club Member and so qualify for Member discount off their products and to enable you to purchase Club insignia regalia. All elected Club Officials and appointed Club Officers will have only appropriate access to your records as is required to carry out their Club duties. Your personal details will not be provided to, or shared with any other persons or organisation except in the case of exemptions as recognised by the Data Protection Act, Section 29 – Crime and Taxation. Records of your financial transactions with the Club shall only be available to Club personnel who have a clear financial brief, except in extraordinary circumstances were this information is required by the Club's Committees. Records shall be accurately maintained, providing Members keep us fully informed. Out of date personal details will be removed from the records after 12 months redundancy. Members names however shall remain in a permanent archive. As the Club has as paramount an historical foundation, all information about Members' machines shall be kept in a permanent historical archive. Information in this archive will not be deleted. Current ownership of machines will not be revealed to other persons, unless with the expressed permission of the said current owner. Details in the machine archive, other than current ownership, may be used for the purposes of research, verification of historical provenance, and the prevention of fraud. Data Protection Warning: Commercially available software makes it possible to identify a location address from a telephone number. This may be of significance to members who contribute to the Riders List. The list however is designed to exclude overt references to the Club's name, Vincents, and Motorcycles; so its purpose should be opaque to non-members.

4. Machine Data...

The Club maintains a unique historical archive which traces the life of all Vincent H.R.D. and Vincent machines which can be of great benefit in the event of a machine being stolen. Additionally, it helps the Club to combat forgery by the unscrupulous. Please contribute to this important archive by giving details of all complete Vincent and Vincent H.R.D. machines, and details of machine parts you own.
